

Anton Abashkin

COO

Anton spent most of his career at PwC Russia where he led the Center for Technology and Innovation. His main areas of expertise included strategy and financing of early-stage businesses as well as corporate innovation and venture capital. Anton has since worked in several venture capital firms including Russian-American investment firm Envirtue Capital focused on early-stage tech companies. He was a vice president in charge of marketing, sales and operations at Visyond Ventures, a UK-based Software-as-a-Service company. Anton was also a partner responsible for startup development at ABRT Innovations, an international startup accelerator and VC fund.
